

HELP FOR REFUGEES

FROM UKRAINE

We are at your side! Deutsche Bahn offers you, refugees from Ukraine, support.

We can't imagine what you are going through right now and want to help.

Use our trains and buses to bring you to safety in Germany.

To support you, we have collected the most important information and offers of help for you here:

- Information on entering Germany
- Information on assistance offers and safe accommodations for the first time
- Information on next steps and contact persons

You can find all information here:

https://www.zugportal.de/ukraine_en

The German Federal Police warns young people and women travelling alone about suspicious overnight offers - only contact official services!

If you observe something suspicious,
please contact the police.
